Return of Kohinoor Diamond from Britain

*40. DR. C. NARAYANA REDDY: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have requested the British Government for the return of the World famous Kohinoor Diamond;

(b) whether it is a fact that the British Government is entertaining a doubt on the ownership of the diamond; and

(c) if so, what measures are being taken by Government to ensure the return of the Kohinoor, which rightfully belongs to India?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI ANANTH KUMAR): (a) to (c) As per the information provided by the Ministry of External Affairs, the Culture, Media and Sports Committee of British House of Commons, which is chaired by Gerald Kaufman is presently conducting an enquiry entitled "Cultural Property: Return and Illicit Trade". The objective of the enquiry is to make recommendations with regard to issues relating to claims for return of cultural properties, which were historically removed and policies of museums on such claims including solutions other than return. The Committee is not, however, expected to make any recommendations on individual claims.

The Indian High Commission in London discussed the matter with Kaufman Committee.
